

Answers

A Fool's Dictionary

*“The first of April, some do say,
Is set apart for All Fools’ Day.
But why the people call it so,
Nor I, nor they themselves do know.
But on this day are people sent
On purpose for pure merriment.”*
Poor Robin’s Almanac (1790)

The answers to “A Fool’s Dictionary” worksheet from page 47 of the April issue are:

April Fool A person successfully tricked on April first

Fool A person who acts unwisely or imprudently, a stupid person, a jester or clown. One who acts in a joking or teasing way.

Fool’s Cap A cap with bells attached worn by jesters

Act the Fool . . . Behave in a silly way

Fool’s Errand . . A fruitless venture

Fool’s Gold Iron pyrites, often mistaken for gold

Fool’s Paradise . . Happiness founded on an illusion

Trompe l’oeil . . . A still-life painting, designed to give an illusion of reality. Literally means “deceives the eye.”

Foolhardy Rashly or foolishly bold, reckless

Tax Time Coins

Use these images to go with the “Tax Time!” activity on page 46 of the April issue.

