

Bringing History Alive

Letters from the Past Book Report

The title and author of my book: _____

The book tells about this time and place: _____

Here's a description of the main character, who writes the letters or journal entries that tell the story.
(You can write this on the back. Be sure to tell whether this character is fictional or historical.)

The main character wrote to: _____

The main character wrote about: _____

Here are three things I learned about this time and place by reading this book:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Here are five things I learned about this character from reading his/her letters or journal entries:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

If I could meet this character in real life, here's what I would like to tell or ask him or her:

Compare your life to that of the character you got to know in your book. Fill in the diagram below, listing details about your character's life and your life that are similar and different in the appropriate areas.

My Character's Life

My life

